

Ensure you write your name on the answer sheet

There are 20 multiple choice questions

You have 20 minutes to complete the quiz

You are the referee in these questions

1. A defender on his own goal line, between the goal posts, deliberately handles the ball which rebounds to an opponent who scored a goal directly. What decision should the referee make?

[A] The referee sends off the defender for denying an obvious goalscoring opportunity by deliberately handling the ball to prevent a goal and awards a penalty kick.

[B] The referee applies advantage, allows the goal and cautions the defender for unsporting behaviour.

[C] The referee applies advantage, awards the goal and sends off the defender for denying an obvious goalscoring opportunity by deliberately handling the ball to prevent a goal.

[D] The referee applies advantage and awards the goal without taking any disciplinary action

Law 12 pages 18-19 & 63-68

2. An Attacker with an obvious goalscoring opportunity heads the ball. At this moment, his shirt is pulled by an opponent. The referee applies advantage. The ball is passed directly to a team-mate who scored a goal. What decision should the referee make?

[A] The referee allows the goal and does not take any disciplinary action.

[B] The referee disallows the goal, cautions the opponent for preventing the attacker gaining possession of the ball by holding on to his shirt and awards a direct free kick or penalty kick.

[C] The referee allows the goal and cautions the opponent for unsporting behaviour.

[D] The answers a) and c) are correct.

Law 12 pages 18-19 & 63-68

3. Which of the following offences should you punish with a direct free kick to the opponents?

[A] Plays in a dangerous manner

[B] Impedes an opponent's progress

[C] Prevents the goalkeeper releasing the ball

[D] Trips or attempts to trip an opponent

Law 12 pages 18-19 & 63-68

4. A player is guilty of serious foul play if

[A] He uses excessive force or brutality against anyone.

[B] He uses excessive force or brutality against an opponent when the ball is out of play

[C] He uses excessive force or brutality against an opponent when challenging for the ball in play

[D] None of the answers are correct

Law 12 pages 18-19 & 63-68

5. What requirement must be met for a player, in an offside position, to be penalised?

- [A] He is the only one running towards the ball.
- [B] He touches the ball.
- [C] He is in the line of vision of an opponent.
- [D] All answers may be correct

Law 11 Pages 17 & 55-62

6. Can the referee compensate for an error in timekeeping during the first half by adding or reducing time in the second half?

- [A] Yes.
- [B] Yes, the same amount of time can be added or subtracted.
- [C] No.
- [D] No, only reductions can be made.

Law 7 Pages 13 & 54

7. Two players from the same team who are on the field of play strike each other with excessive force while the ball is in play. What decision should the referee make?

- [A] The referee allows play to continue and cautions the two players when play is stopped.
- [B] The referee sends off the two players and awards an indirect free kick to the opposing team.
- [C] The offence is not committed against an opponent so the referee allows play to continue.
- [D] None of the previous answers are correct.

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

8. A player challenging for the ball becomes injured. The referee stops play and after the player has recovered left the field of play for treatment, the referee...

- [A] Restarts play with a dropped ball from where the player was.
- [B] Restarts play with a dropped ball from where the ball was when play was stopped.
- [C] Restarts play with a dropped ball from where the referee was.
- [D] Restarts play by dropping the ball to a team-mate of the injured player.

Law 8 Pages 14 & 54

9. The keeper cannot keep 'control of the ball' for more than 6 seconds. When is the keeper 'in control of the ball'?

- [A] When holding the ball in an outstretched open hand
- [B] Whilst tossing the ball in the air
- [C] Whilst bouncing the ball on the ground
- [D] All of the above

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

10. A player lunges at an opponent from the side using one leg with excessive force, endangering the safety of the opponent. What should you judge this action to be?

- [A] Dangerous play
- [B] Unacceptable, but allow advantage as the player being tackled has kept control of the ball and might be able to clear it to a team mate
- [C] Serious foul play
- [D] Unsporting behaviour

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

11. A non-international match begins. One team starts with eight players, and after ten minutes, five more appear. Can these five players participate in the game?

- [A] No, only three to complete the starting eleven. In these cases, substitutes are not permitted.
- [B] Yes. As long as their names were given to the referee before the match, three may complete the side immediately and the other two may come on later as substitutes.
- [C] Yes, when the referee is advised and they wait for his permission to join the match during a stoppage.
- [D] Yes, if their names were communicated to the referee before the start of the match. But they cannot join until the second half of the match.

Law 3 Pages 7-8 & 33-34

12. A defender deliberately kicks the ball to her goalkeeper who is standing in her own penalty area. What should you do?

- [A] Nothing
- [B] Stop play, caution the defender and award an indirect free kick against her team from where she kicked the ball
- [C] Stop play, caution the goalkeeper and award an indirect free kick against her team from where she played the ball
- [D] If the goalkeeper only uses her feet, no action should be taken. However, if the goalkeeper touches the ball with her hands, an indirect free kick is awarded from where she handled it

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

13. 'Charging' legally is challenging for space using physical contact. To be legal the action must be:

- [A] Within playing distance of the ball
- [B] Without the use of arms or elbows
- [C] Judged by you not to be careless, reckless or excessively forceful
- [D] All of the above

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

14. During kicks from the penalty mark, players are sent off and a team ends up with fewer than seven players. Does the referee stop the kicks or allow them to continue?

- [A] He allows them to continue because the kicks are part of the match.
- [B] He stops the kicks and writes a report on what has happened.
- [C] He allows them to continue. The kicks are not part of the match.
- [D] None of the answers are correct.

Procedures to determine the winner of a match pages 27 & 72

15. While the ball is in play a players leaves the field of play and violently strikes an official of the opposing team. What decision should the referee make?

- [A] The referee sends off the offending player and awards a direct free kick.
- [B] The referee sends off the offending player and awards an indirect free kick.
- [C] The referee cautions the player for unsporting behaviour and awards an indirect free kick.
- [D] The referee cautions the player for unsporting behaviour and awards a direct free kick.

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

16. A player is guilty of unsporting behaviour while the ball is in play. The referee stops play and cautions him. How should play be restarted?

- [A] Play is restarted with an indirect free kick.
- [B] Play is restarted with a direct free kick.
- [C] Play is restarted with either a free kick, penalty kick or dropped ball.
- [D] Play is restarted with a dropped ball.

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

17. Which of the following is not a consideration for determining whether or not an offence has denied an opponent an obvious goalscoring opportunity?

- [A] Whether or not the attacker had possession of the ball or the ability to gain possession.
- [B] Whether or not the offending player is the last man.
- [C] The direction of play.
- [D] The number of defenders.

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

18. At the taking of a drop ball a player kicks it directly into their opponents' goal. What decision should the referee make?

- [A] Award a goal.
- [B] Award a goal kick.
- [C] Award a corner kick.
- [D] Retake the drop ball.

Law 8 Pages 14 & 54

19. A player is cautioned if he commits one of the following offences. Which is NOT correct?

- [A] Being guilty of unsporting behaviour
- [B] Persistently infringing the Laws of the Game
- [C] Using offensive, insulting or abusive language and or gestures
- [D] Delaying the restart of play

Law 12 Pages 18-19 & 63-68

20. The ball is in play when...

- [A] it crosses the whole outchline or goal-line
- [B] It bounces off the goal posts, crossbar, corner posts, referee or assistant referees situated on the field of play and remains on it.
- [C] It bounces off the goal posts, crossbar, corner posts, posts on the halfway line (if applicable) or assistant referees situated off the field of play and remains on it.
- [D] None of the previous answers in correct.

Law 9 Pages 15 & 55